Let's Read

Mouse to Mouse Story

By Yeung Tsz Hei Ceci 3D (24)

At the weekend, Spike, Barbet, Gaysha and Bacon are going to the restaurant to eat. They are happy because they haven't seen each other for a long time. They are going to Gail's Fast Food to eat. They feel good.

At two o'clock, they are talking outside the restaurant. They feel hungry.

In the restaurant, they eat some yummy and salty French fries, spicy fried chicken and drink some orange juice. They feel great. Oh no! A mouse is snatching a slice of pizza from Gaysha. They are shocked.

At last, Bacon buys a new pizza for Gaysha and everyone. They enjoy it. They are full. Now it is time for them to go home.

Let's Draw

By Shiu Sin Man Alice 3C (18)

On Monday, Kevin and Emily are at home. Kevin draws a picture of trees. Emily feels bored.

While Kevin is mixing paint, Emily picks up the paint brush and draws on the picture.

Kevin doesn't notice it. When he sees the picture, he is shocked. "Oh, no!" he shouts. Emily thinks it's funny but Kevin is sad.

"I'm sorry," Emily apologises. "Don't be sorry!" says Kevin. "Don't do that again." He paints a rainbow on top of Emily's drawing to make it better. They feel great at last.

What's for Lunch

By Lam Hei Jit Alvis 3B (12)

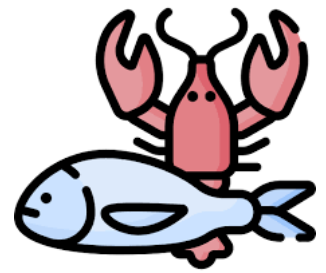

Last Sunday morning, Steve, Bella, Katarina, Aunt Fifi and Aunt Eve were at the old pier. They felt joyful because they were going to Cheung Chau.

Then, Pirate Pang came with his big brown pirate junk. They were going to Cheung Chau. They felt excited. They said, "Yeah!"

Grr! Steve, Bella and Katarina wanted to eat because they were starving.

Katarina said, "I'm hungry!"

Bella said, "Me too! Me too!"

In the end, Pirate Pang caught a fish, shrimps, crabs and eels. He cooked the seafood. They ate the delicious seafood and sashimi together. Steve said, "I am full." Bella said, "Me too! Me too!" They were happy because they were full.

My Sunday Diary

By Lin Sum Wing Emma 3A (14)

Today was a sunny day. In the morning at nine o'clock, I had a picnic. I flew a kite and took a walk in the park. I went to City Park by bus. My parents and my little sister were with me. I felt very happy and excited.

In the afternoon at two o'clock, I went skipping because I like skipping very much. I ate watermelon too. It was juicy. I went to a shopping mall afterwards and bought corn.

😊My Happiest Moment: I went for a picnic in the park with my family. The air was fresh!

My Best Friend

By Cheung Tsz Tung Janice 3A (3)

Last Tuesday afternoon at half past twelve, Jason and his classmates had their Visual Art lesson in the Art room. Jason's work was chosen to be the best work in the class. Jason was happy because he was the winner of this competition.

At recess after the sports lesson, Jason and his friend Sam went to the small playground to eat their yummy spicy potato chips because they were hungry. They said, "The chips are delicious!"

Suddenly, Jason's chips fell down! Jason cried, "No! My chips! Woowoowoo....." He was crying really hard.

Sam said, "Don't cry! I will share my chips with you."

Finally, Jason was happy because he had such a good friend who was ready to share with him at anytime when he was in need. He found himself really lucky.

The Fried Chicken

By Cheung Ka Ying Janice 3B (6)

Today, Karen and her brother Joe buy a takeaway at a fried chicken shop. They say, "Hurray!" They feel very happy.

Then, Karen and Joe see a dog. It looks very hungry. Look! The hungry dog is looking at the bag of fried chicken. Karen and Joe do not help the dog because they are very hungry.

The hungry dog feels angry. Suddenly, it chases after Karen and Joe. They run fast and they look like two tiny mice. They feel scared.

Finally, the shopkeeper sees it. She gives a piece of fried chicken to the dog. The hungry dog runs away. She also gives Karen and Joe some fried chicken. Joe says, "There are too many. Thank you!" They go home happily.

My Sunday Diary

By Lai Chi Yau Anna 3C (9)

At seven o'clock in the morning, I went to the beach by MTR with my mum, dad, my two brothers and cousin. First, we collected the sea shells. I got the pink shells. They were beautiful. Then, we went to swim. My cousin said, "Let us swim together and see who is the fastest!" I swam very fast and I won. I felt over the moon.

At one o'clock in the afternoon, we went to KFC on foot. We ate delicious pizza, French fries, onion rings and burgers. Mum and Dad said, "You cannot drink too much cola!" So we drank orange juice. It was sweet. After that, we went to Lok Fu Park by bus. We went cycling. I fell a lot but I kept trying. I felt tired but joyful.

My happiest memory is going cycling because it was interesting!

Oh no, Mr Lo!

By Fan Yui Hei Hayden 3D (4)

Last Friday morning, Mr Lo, Rose, Danny, Betty and Joe were in a classroom. They were reading books because they wanted to make a robot. They felt absurd because they didn't think that they could make a machine. First, they made a machine. She was Polly. She was wearing a T-shirt. She was light yellow. She also had wings. She could recycle rubbish.

Next, Polly ate Mr Lo. Mr Lo shouted, "Help me!" Mr Lo felt scared. The students were frightened.

After that, Polly took Mr Lo out of her tummy. Mr Lo became tiny. He looked like an ant! The students felt terrified and shocked. The students shouted, "Don't worry! Let us help you!"

Finally, students let Mr Lo drink a big potion. Mr Lo became normal. Mr Lo felt happy because he turned back to the normal size. Students felt happy too. They cheered,

"Hurray!" Mr Lo said, "Thank you!"
